Toyonaka International Friendship Association

Introduction (ごあいさつ)

Toyonaka International Friendship Association (TIFA) was founded in 1985 in Toyonaka City, Osaka Prefecture, with the aim of promoting international exchange in the neighborhood. In 2000, 15 years after our establishment, TIFA became a non-profit organization with the aim of furthering multicultural understanding and coexistence. We promote activities rooted in the community involving handmade crafts and overseas activities in order to realize a peaceful society where it is easy for all of us to live together. Anyone with an interest in the diverse cultures of the world is welcome to join us. We look forward to your participation in the local and global activities of TIFA.
